FIE NEWSLETTER

DECEMBER 2011

LAUNCH OF THE FIE WEBSITE

We are delighted to inform you that the website for the FIE is now up and running for all to see. Our President was able to arrange for IPENZ to assist in the preparation of the website with our Council member Sanjesh Deo.

The FIE is grateful to all who have worked on that project through to completion. The website also now puts the FIE on the World map. The first page is shown below.

To access the site you need to go to:

Welcome to The Fiji Institution of Engineers

What is The Fiji Institution of Engineers (FIE)?

The FIE is the locally recognised body representing Engineering Professionals in Fiji. The overall object of the institution is the advancement of the science and profession of Engineering. The FIE is governed by a nine member Council which is appointed by its members at its Annual General Meeting in accordance with the Rules of FIE.

The membership of the FIE is open to all who meet the minimum qualification requirements as stipulated in the Rules of FIE for its various grades of membership.
